Says Body Won't Be Exhumed
Dr. Victor Frederickson, Auditore's personal physician, who had charge of the case until within a few hours of the death, declared any suspicion surrounding the death was ridiculous. He said the bedy probably would not be exhumed. He based his opinion upon information he received yesterday.
Dr. Monae-Lesser also was of the opinion that the body would not be exhumed. But, he said, to do this would be a harmless proceeding, and "all parties then might be satisfied as to the cause of death."

Dr. Anthony Saeli, of Brocklyn, aserta incremation he received yesterday.

Dr. Monae-Lesser also was of the opinion that the body would not be enhumed. But, he said, to do this would be a harmless proceeding, and all parties then might be satisfied as to the cause of death."

Dr. Anthony Saeli, of Brooklyn, assisted Drs. Frederickson and Monae-Lesser in treating Auditore. Several other physicians and three nurses, whose names have been mentioned interto, took part in the case. Dr. Saeli was the only physician who was with Auditore when he died. He has corroborated the assertions of the attendants and other physicians as to the millionaire dying a natural death. It was learned at the apartment in twee where Auditore and Miss Lebonsky has been calling or sending for her mail at that address since she lebonsky has been calling or sending for her mail at that address since she lett the place after Auditore's death. An employee told a Tribune reporter that she had "left for good." Apparently she has not left the city. Dr. Monae-Lesser said he did not know where she had gone.

It was said that another conference esser, whom the side of Frank Auditore's dath is a the case of the suspicion of extreme penalties.
